

Questionnaire survey for Fishing cat conservation project in Hakaluki Haor, Bangladesh From 1st to 14th December, 2025

Fumi Tanaka, Aminur Rahman, Sumaya Khatun, Mahfuzur Rahman, Israt Rahman Jui, Kashim Uddin, Mohammad Limon Ahmed

Objectives for this field survey

- Conducting a questionnaire survey in the eastern part of Hakaluki Haor to examine local people's perceptions of and attitudes toward the Fishing Cat, Jungle Cat, and Golden Jackal

Meeting among the members before the survey (1st December)

Some moments from Questionnaire Survey

The surveyors spoke individually with each respondent and listened attentively.

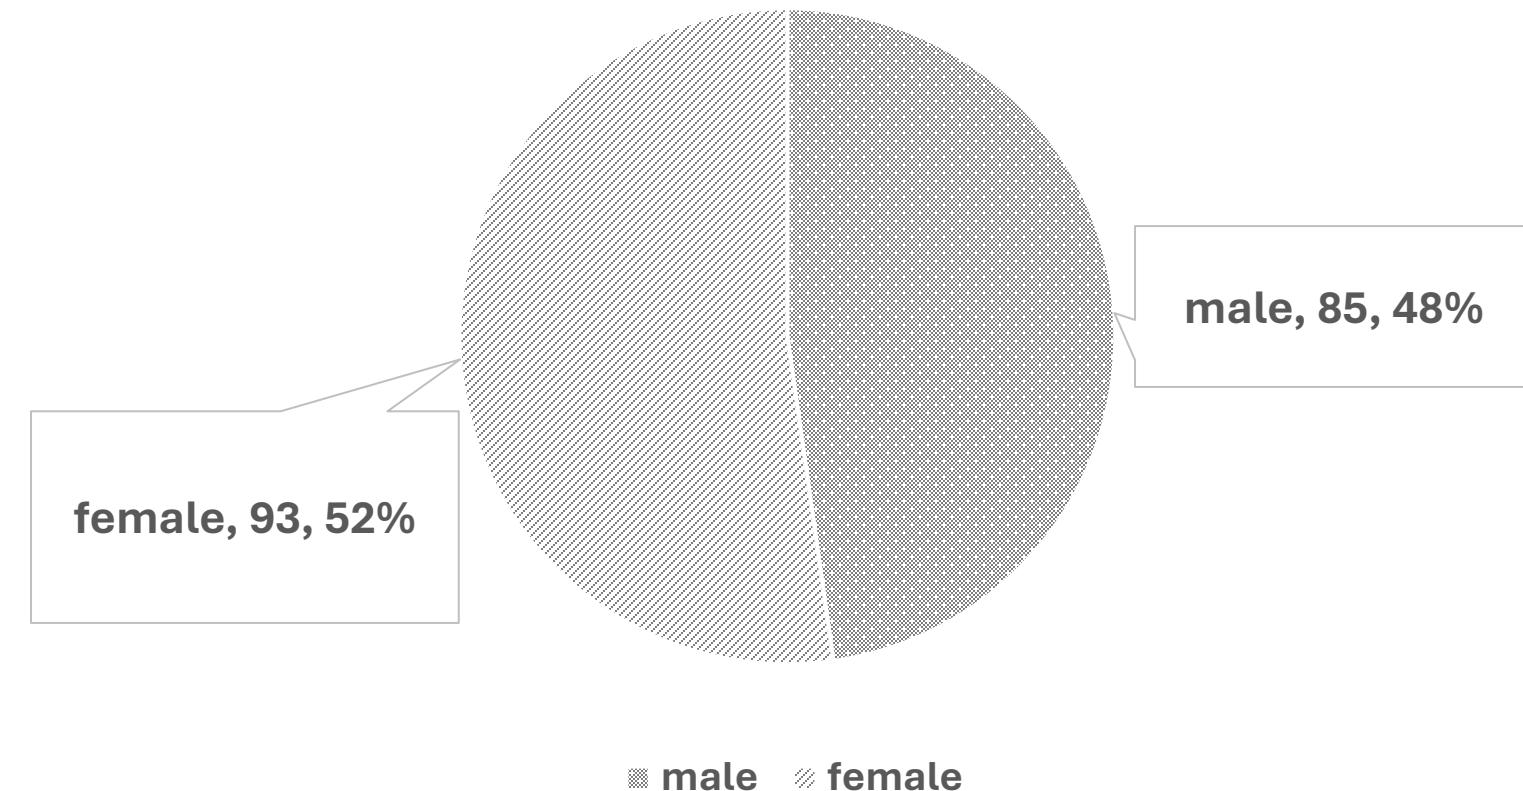

Basic Data from this survey

Total number of respondents: 178 responds/19 villages

Graph 1:
Respondents by gender
(number and percentage)

Respondents by gender (number and percentage)

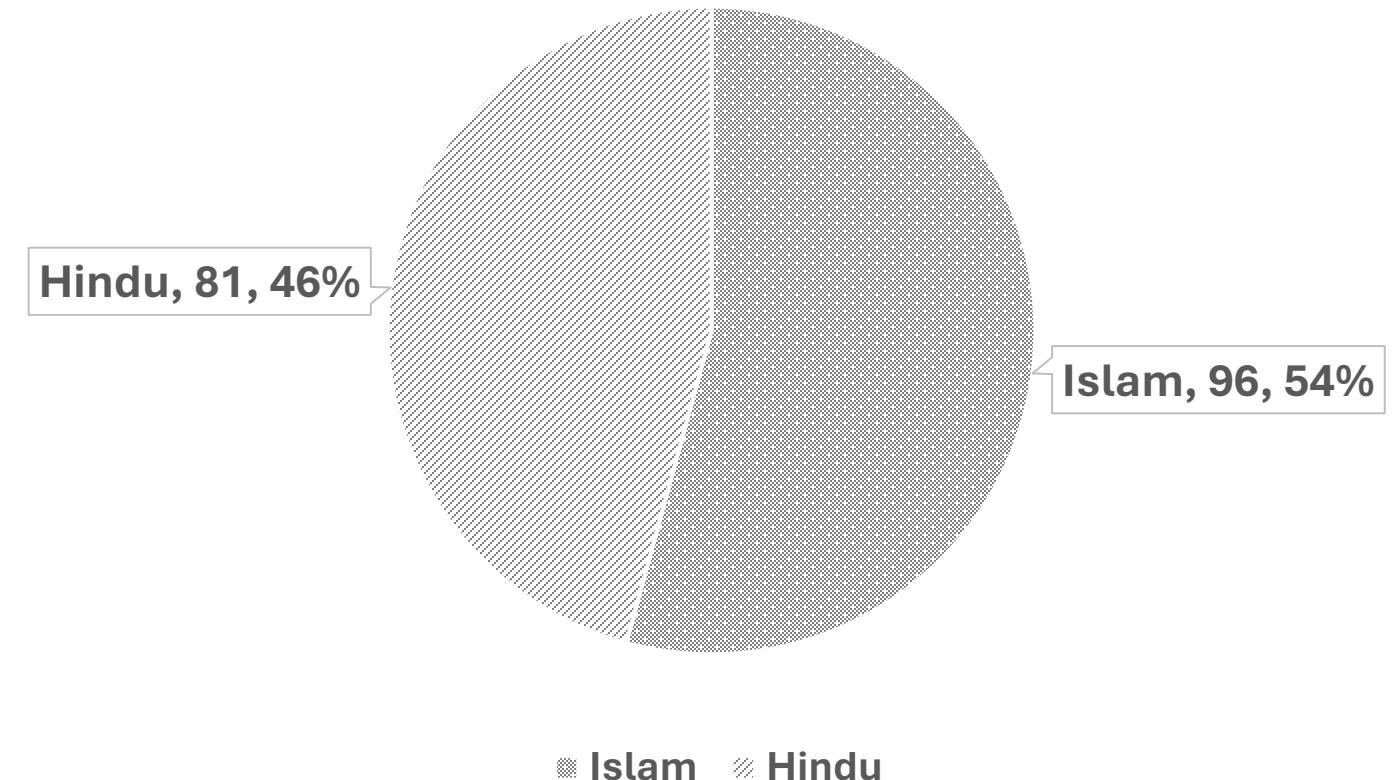

Basic Data from this survey

Total number of respondents: 178 responds/19 villages

Graph 2:
Respondents by religion
(number and percentage)

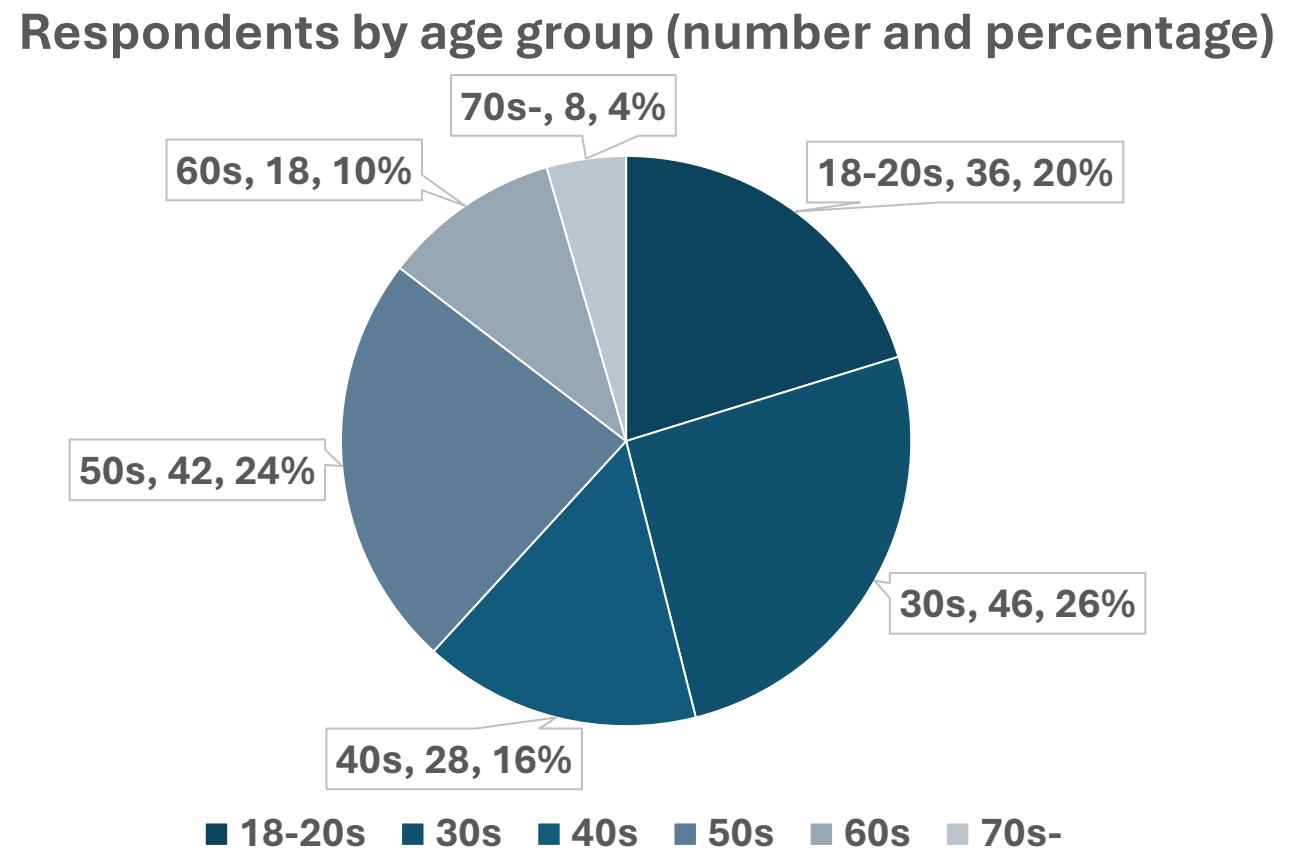

Respondents by religion (number and percentage)

Basic Data from this survey

Total number of respondents: 178 responds/19 villages

Graph 3:
Respondents by age
(number and percentage)

Some moments from the field trip

A scene of crossing a river using bamboo, this is a little bit thrilling activity👉

👉The most beautiful moment with coresearchers, assistants in the Haor

Some moments from the field trip

Some respondents gave us
some snacks and traditional tea during survey

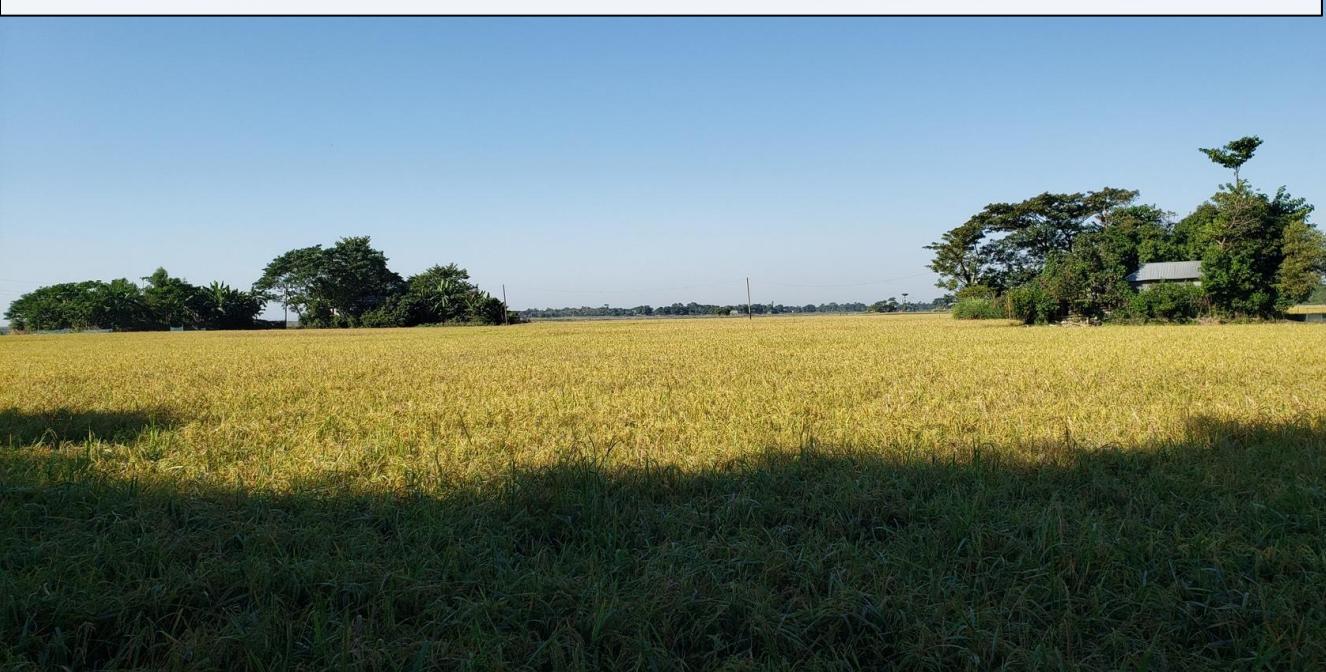

Delicious dinner after each survey

Some moments from the field trip

A beautiful paddy field in the research field

Large quantities of fish at the auction